ROBBERY .- A gentleman living in Wentworth street had the back room of his house entered on Thursday evening last while some friends were sitting with him in the front, and was robbed of two pair of shoes and all the glassware which was on the sideboard. The thief, not satisfied with taking these things, the property of the owner of the premises, meanly carried off also a hat belonging to one of the visitors.

MURDER.—About half-past four A. M. yesterday morning a freedman named Robert Dantzler was murdered in cold blood by another freedman named Daniel Jenkins, at No. 13 Shepherd street. A jury was promptly impannelled, and the following evidence elicited: "The two men above stat ed had quarrelled about a month ago. On Thursday night Jenkins secreted himself under Dantzler's house, and, when he came out in the morning, called him to the street, and deliberate-

In accordance with the above facts, the Jury found Jenkins guilty of wilful murder. Warrants were immediately issued for his arrest, but up to a late hour he had not been found.

ome articles, the wrong journal has been named. We have not written this from any spirit of ault-finding, but with a desire that editors should exercise more care hereafter in mentioning the sapers from which they may make their extracts.

PROVOST COURT.-The proceedings were characterized by unusual brev ty. In two cases the prisoners seeing no loop holo for escape, plead guilty, trusting to the clemency of the Court, but found to their sorrow that although justice is tempered with mercy in their cases, it was a played out article.

The United States vs. Jacob Small (colored). Shooting a mule.—Referred to a Military Commis-

United States vs. Jno. Dingle (colored).-Stealing fowls.—The defendant plead guilty, and was sentenced to pay $30, and to work for sixty days upon the public streets.

United States vs. John Washington and Joe Grant (colored) .- Fighting .- It appeared almost natural that possessing the warlike names they did, that these incipient warriors should settle their difficulties by an appeal to fisticuffs. Washington is an ubiquitous sinner, and some of the family are always up for some misdemeanor. Grant, in spite of his patronymic, has been only an occasional visitor. Money is emphatically the root of all evil. The small sum of twenty cents caused the row, which was only quelled by the combatants being overpowered and conveyed to that happy place the Guard House, where fighting is unkuown.

Washington, on account of his distingushed name and past services, was flued $10 or twenty days' hard labor on the streets. Grant, who was not so ambitions of notoriety, being a much younger warrior, was fined $5 or ten days' hard labor on the streets.

United States vs. Bill Walker (colored) .- Interfering with the Police,-The prisoner imagined himself a Mentor and was advising the police and others how to act. The Court reprimanded him for his unseasonable loquacity and discharged

United States vs. Louisa Johnston (colored) .-Assault on Harriet Burrows (colored).-The defendant used that awful weapon, her tongue, too freely, and was answered in the same manner by the prosecutrix. Words led to blows, and the lovely countenances of both parties were marred by their spirited licks. The claret flew, and there is no knowing what the result would have been if the Provost Court had not acted as umpire, and decided that Louisa must take a sedative, or, in other words, be fined $10 or twenty days' hard labor on the streets.

Manon's Count, August 10 .- The docket for the last day or two has been quite slim, owing probably to the extreme hot weather, which prevented the riotons from being about, or may be, a want of funds, which did not allow the thirsty souls to patronize their favorite bars.

There were only two cases yesterday before His Honor-both for drunkenness. One who was so far gone as to be brought bodily to the Guard H. use, by a committee appointed for that purpose was fined $5, and the other, who had just enough in him to make him imagine he was chasing somebody, was caught at about the time he arrived at the top of his speed, and made

The Columbia Pariot of yesterday says that Mr. Denois Henerse, a worthy mechanic, who has been our midst but a short time, died very suddenly on Wednesday afternoon last.

A jury of inquest was empanuelled by Coroner Walker, and, after the examination of several witnesses, the jury returned the following verdict:

"That the said Dennis Hene-se came to his death on the 8th of August, A. D. 1866, from injuries received from a fall on the night of the 7th of August instant."

The Phymic of the same date says that the page

The Phænix of the same date says that the new Phænix office came near being the scene of two fatal occurrences yesterday. About 2 o'clock, a colored man, named Oliver, employed by Mr. A. colored man, named Oliver, employed by Mr. A. Palmer, in roofing the building, was overcome by the heat, and had to be carried home, in a very precarious situation—it is thought that the attack will terminate fatally. Later in the afternoon, Mr. Robert Johnson, the contractor, was superintending the removal of some flooring, when the pile fell on him, cutting his head in two places and bruising his body somewhat. He will be all right in a day or two.

SUMTER.—At a public meeting held in Sumter, the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That, in the opinion of this meeting, unless some relief which is constitutional be devised by the Legislature, great distress, if not general ruin, will be the necessary and immediate result.

result.

Resolved, That his Excellency the Governor be carnestly and respectfully requested to convene an extra session of the Legislature, for the purpose of considering what remedy can and should be provided.

Resolved, That our Senator and Representatives be, and are hereby, instructed to devote their best energies in devising and carrying through the General Assembly such legislative action as will give relief to our people.

give relief to our people.

Ti e Camden Journal says that the Legislature of South Carolina will be convened in extra session, by Gov. Orr, in perhaps a few weeks. From the Anderson Intelligencer of Thursday we glean the following: A rattlesnake, six feet in length, and having twelve rattles, was killed near this village on Monday evening last. This is a huge reptile for our section, and an uncommon signt of late years to find one of this deadly species hereshours.

Tures United States soldiers, belonging to the Three United States soldiers, belonging to the garrison at this place, were arrested on sunday last, and commit ed to jail, for breaking into Mr. T. S. Crayton's house, on Main street. The house has not been occupied for some time, and she attempt on Sunday morning was the third offence within two weeks. These men will be tried by civil authority.

The Yorkville Enquirer, of the 9th, says :

Then how much more is a want of dignity exhibited by those who have charge of the great vohicles of public information, who borrow the ideas of others, and intentionally or accidentally forgets to name the source from which they have obtained the most interesting article, perhaps, that their colums contain.

These remarks have been brought from us in consequence of having observed in a number of papers many matters which we certainly thought of sufficient importance to print, and which we continue in many sections of the District, and received from all most discouraging accounts relative to the crop prospects. We are convinced that a one-third is all that can be expected now. Dry weath recontinues in many sections of the District, and the corn in some is herally dead. Of cetten, there will not be enough raised to buy grain to supply the deficiency. These facts are gloomy, but facts nevertheless.

A public meeting assembled in the Court House during the day, to consider the subject of the indebtedness of the country and the hardships that will cesuse from creditors forcing their claims at this time.

The Carolina Spartan, of Thursday, mentions the following:

the following:

Last Monday, being sales day, a large number of our country friends were in town. In fact, it was the largest crowd we have seen on such an occasion for many a day. We saw persons from almost every section of the district, and all gave gloomy-accounts of the prospects of the growing crop. Every section has been suffering greatly for want of rain. The wheat having been threshed, it is ascertained that it does not average, in the district, more than a third of a crop.

John Odem and James Odem, who were prison.

John Odem and James Odem, who were prisoners under charges of grand larceny, and Amanda Huckaby, charge larc ny, succeeded in getting out of jail on Tuesday last. James Odem made his escape; the others were arrested and returned to jail

Fifteen thousand dollars, State and District taxes, have aready been collected in this District, and the Tax Books are not yet closed. The aggregate amount of taxes for this District will be nearly $20,000.

WAR IN ABYSSINIA -Il Commercio, of Cairo,

under date of July 7, says:

A tremendous battle is imminent between the King Theodore II and Gubassie, who aspires to the crown, and has risen in opposition to the despotism of Theodore. Yahro-Medina, the General of Gubassie, has placed the province of Figro under contributions of men, horses, animals of all kinds, provisions and money. Both parties are making great preparations for war. According to the statements of the Abyssinians, there will be not less than 150 000 combatants upon the field of battle. Consul Cameron, and all the other European prisoners, whom the newspapers had stated to have been released, are still in the King's power at Pabretab r. The news is so bud that we should wish it to be contradicted, but the source where we have received it is one which renders it quite deserving of credence. ander date of July 7, says:

The Prussians are capturing some of the finest picture galleries of Europe, as well as occupying some of its richest territories. The Augsburg Gazette contradicts the story that the King of Saxony curried off the treasures of the Green Vaults' of Dresden, in which are contained most of the jewels and valuable works of "bigotry and virtue," collected by the despotic and ex ravagant Augustus the Strong, who made love with a bag of gold which he jingled in one hand, and a horse shoe which he bent straight with the other; and, furthermore, denies the fictureus sale to Quren Victoria of he "Gomalde Gallerie," with its superb pictures, including that Sistine Modonna of Raphael, which Ruskin pronounces the one "perfect work of human art." At Aschafienberg, also, the northern conquerors will find an exc-lient collection, in the old electoral engineering the Gospels, illustrated with marvellous ministure paintings by Glockendon, of Nuremberg, in 1524, for the Elect r Albert of Brandenburg, an ancestor, by the way, of the present sings of Prussia.

A Model Hotel.—The proprietor of a Rees River hotel has posted up the following rules and regulations: Board must be paid in advance, with beans, fifteen dollars; without beans, twelve Jellars: salt free. No extras allowed. Potatoes for dinner. Pocketing at meals strictly forbidden. Gentlemen are expected to wash out of doors, and find their own water. No charge for ice. Towelbags at the end of the house. Extra charge for seats around the stove. Lodgers must find their own straw. Bed on the bar-room finor reserved for regular customers. Pors as sleeping in the barn are requested not to take off their boots. Lodgers inside arise at 5 A. M.; in the barn at 6 o'clock. No fighting allowed at the table. Any one violating the above rules will be shot.

STATISTICS OF MILWAUREE.—The population of Milwaukee, Wis., in 1840, was 1750 souls; in 1865 the inhabitants numbered 55,640. During the season of navigation last year the importations amounted to 50,000 tons of eastern merchandize, principally sugar (mainly from Portland Me.), coffee, tea, surar, oil and sait. The receipts of wheat amounted to 12,043,659 busbels, which is ahead even of Chicago in this item of such immense magnitude. The shipments of wheat from Milwaukee in 1865 amounted to 10,479 777 busbels. In the port trade last year 457 vessels were engaged in carrying, and rates of freight are always remunerative.

A California editor, participating in a debate as to the best method of building a certain bridge, objected to a coffer dam for making a pier. He said he had formed a projudice against the thing; his uncle once had a cow choked with a turnip, and for a long time it was thought she would coffer dam head off.

PANENIN'S HEFATIO BITTERS .- This valuable preparation, coming as it does from the laboratory of so well known and skilful a pharmaceutist as Mr. PANENIN, has already made great progress in the esteem of our community, especially with persons suffering from dyspepsia, or derangement of the liver, or stomachic debility. The responsibility of the establishment which puts forth these bitters, for specific complaints, and no for every disease which "flesh is heir to." is such as to make all who purchase them know that they are made of only those ingr-dients which the proprietor informs them they are composed of, and which certainly is a guarantee that few of the medical remedies which are being published in every nook and corner of the streets at the present time, can lay claim to. For ourselves, we can say that they are not only of an agreeable taste. but a capital corrective of dispepsia and a most excellent appetizer, and that we firmly believe, if properly taken for any derangement of the hepauc functions, they will make the person so using them a very long
